> The race between Mesers Rawlins and Cannon is being pushed with an intentness rarely ever seen in congressional elections. Both sides seem to realize that this is the character battle of the campaign and both are using their best fighters in it. The one side is headed by a man who has nad a most successful career in the position and whose achievements in it have been wonderful. The other is led by a gentleman totally lacking experience in such matters. It is certainty against doubt. It is tried and true merit against peradventure. The people of Utah are a practical people and are apt to consider results rather than will be triumphantly re-elected as he ought to be.

THE Tribune is taking a very rosy Geo. Cunningham, American Fork, view of Mr. Cannon's campaign. He is a great teacher, in the eyes of the James O. Bullock, Pleasant Grove, Trib., and the people are flocking to him in immense multitudes to learn of him. Frankie himself must be very much at nished at the result. He has not heretofore rated himself a Moses Hyrum F. Thomas, Spanish Fork. in this sort of thing, nowever much be has labored to establish this character among the people If the Trib. keeps this up much longer, the boy will himself be convicted, and then the devil will be to pay.

Now is the time for our executive and campaign committees to put in their heavy licks. Let there be no let up, no slacking up in effort. From now on till the polls close, let the good work go on. Let every voter be seen, appealed to, reasoned with and urged. If we only gain ten votes by a re-canvass, it is worth the labor. Let no man Causengum and provided as follows, to-wit:
